Joe had a weird dream last night. He dreamt that everything in his house was alive and talking. When he went to the kitchen to get some food to eat, he heard the round kettle telling the oven (that the rectangular refrigerator had put on weight). The refrigerator did not hear it because it was sleeping.

Joe went to the living room to watch television but he could not sit down. (The sofa was dancing with the square coffee table). Then he went back to his room and was shocked to see the chair having a 'leg fight' with the study table while the oval rug was cheering at them. Fortunately, the bed was fast asleep, so he hopped in it and wished that it was all just a dream.
