A106 Jalan Sri Melaka,
75000 Melaka.
20 May 2017.

Dear Jaden,

Sorry for the late reply. I was busy preparing for my school project. By the way, how are you coping now?

I understand that you have lots of homework and revision to be done. You have a Science project to be completed by the end of the month. On top of that, the mid-year examination is just round the corner.

You complain that you do not have time to watch your favourite television programme. You do not have time to play badminton and basketball with your neighbours too. All these are making you mad.

My advice is do not waste time on complaining. It is no use. You should plan how to use your time wisely. Make a timetable which includes time for homework, revision and not forgetting your time for recreation. It is important for you to have some time for rest and exercise too.

I wish you all the best. Do write if you need further advice.
Thank you.

Your ex-classmate,
Isaac
