Questions 22

Read the story below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Long ago in the land of Borneo, the villagers collected honey for food. Whenever a villager found some honey, he would bring it back to the village and share it with everyone.

Si Jurai and his grandmother lived in the village. However, they had never tasted honey because nobody wanted to share with them. It was because they were too poor to share anything with the villagers. His grandmother was very sad because she couldn't give anything to Si Jurai. So, one day she went to the jungle and asked the spirits of the jungle for help. After that, she never came back to the village.

Si Jurai became worried when his grandmother didn't come home after a few days. He decided to go into the jungle to look for her. He heard his grandmother's voice when he stepped into the jungle. He followed the voice to a tall tree. He was shocked that his grandmother had turned into a tree with a lot of honey. He burst into tears; and felt regretful because he didn't manage to stop his grandmother. Si Jurai realised that his grandmother had sacrificed herself for him. But it was already too late.
