Listen to the story and answer the questions correctly.

Once upon a time, there lived an old man and his three sons. The three sons were always fighting with one another. This made the old man very sad.

One day, the old man called his three sons together. He gave them each a chopstick. He told them to break their chopsticks. The sons broke their own chopsticks easily.

Then, the old man gave them each a bundle of ten chopsticks. Now, he asked them to break their bundle of chopsticks. None of the sons could break the chopsticks.

The old man said, "My sons, when you work together, you will be strong. You are weak when you are alone."

1. How many sons did the old man have?

2. Why was the old man sad?

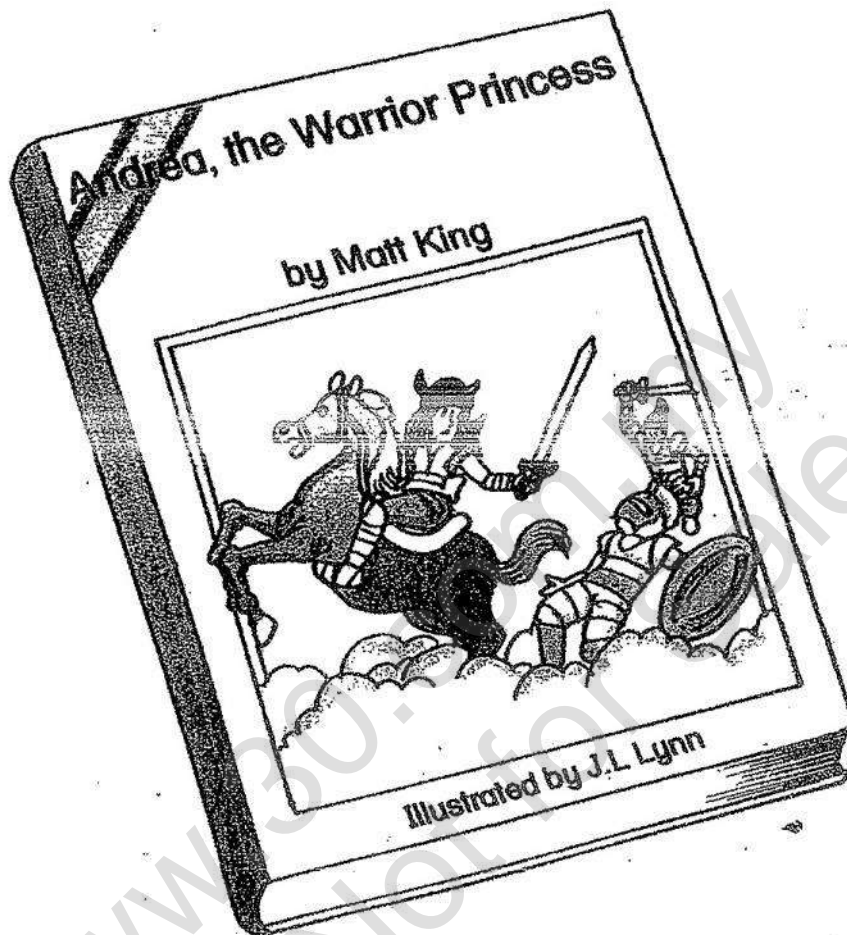

3. What did the old man give his three sons first?

4. Could they break their chopsticks?

5. What did the old man give his sons later?
